BRIDAL HAIR PREP TIPS

For the best possible results:

- Arrive on wedding morning with completely dry, CLEAN hair, unless otherwise discussed. (It's a myth, dirty hair is not better!)
- Wear a robe or button down/zipper top to avoid disrupting your hair style.
- Have an inspiration photo ready. Not sure what you want yet? No Problem, I'm here to guide you.
- Keep conditioner away from the scalp and only apply minimal product to your hair after washing. I'll do all the work.
- Ensure everyone receiving a service is aware of their time slot. Every minute counts to stay on schedule!
- If you have naturally curly hair and wish to wear your hair smooth, make sure you come blown out smooth (not flat ironed).

Let's have a great wedding morning!

CLIENT TESTIMONIALS

Renee

Tracie did a wonderful job helping with mine and my bridesmaids hair on my wedding! She was great at commuting the options we had as well as the cost. When doing my wedding trial she was great at listening to what I wanted and checked in with me a few hours later to see if parts didn't hold and we adjusted from there. On the wedding day she was extremely flexible and helped me each step of the way. Based on my hair do and the bridesmaids she was able to get started and finished so there was no rush at the end. She fit right in with the group and I was lucky to have her help that day!

Michelle

I've been going to Tracie for over 10 years, and there's literally no one else I would've trusted with my wedding hair. She teamed up with her colorist partner to make sure my shade matched perfectly, then did my K-tip extensions and omg... I felt like a fairy tale princess with the most gorgeous, natural-looking long hair.

We did a trial where she helped me figure out the perfect half-up, half-down look with a pretty bridal clip since I didn't want a veil. On the wedding day she kept me so calm and comfortable, and my hair turned out beyond perfect!

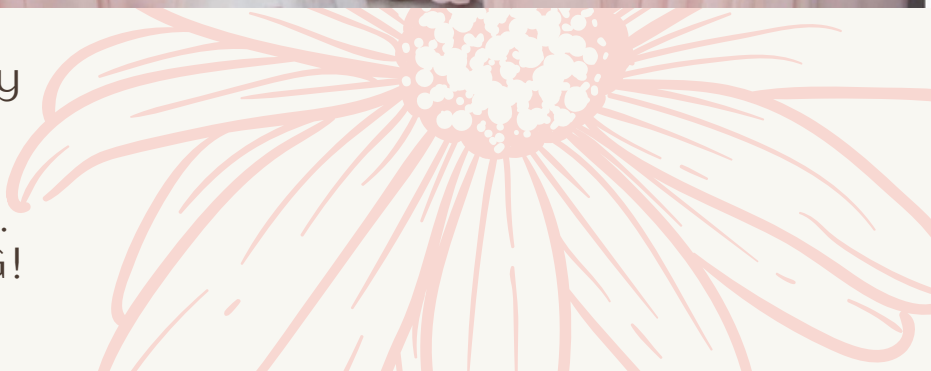

Tracie is the best, I can't thank her enough for making me feel so beautiful on the most important day.

Melissa

Tracie ended up fixing my hair on my wedding day when I hated what my original stylist had done. SHE SAVED MY WEDDING!
